A Message from Karen Hyman, President

Thank you for your interest in joining Congregation Beth HaTephila. CBHT is one of the oldest synagogues in NC. Our Temple was formed in 1891 and since that time has proudly served the Jewish Community of Western North Carolina. We are affiliated with the Union of Reform Judaism and are an egalitarian and open congregation. We embrace diversity and respect the dignity and uniqueness of each individual and family, offering all of our congregants the opportunity for meaningful worship, learning and fellowship. Our Religious School provides a dynamic educational experience for children from pre-school through twelfth grade. We have a broad variety of programs and activities for congregants of all ages.

The membership packet is only an introduction of all that is offered at CBHT. I encourage you to contact either me (president@bethhatephila.org), Craig Frustaci (execdir@bethhatephila.org), or Rabbi Meiri (rabbi@bethhatephila.org) with any questions you may have as you review the information. In addition, please visit our website , www.bethhatephila.org, to learn more about our congregation.

At Congregation Beth HaTephila we endeavor to provide an environment of mutually supportive relationships and engagement with Temple life. On behalf of the Board of Trustees and the entire congregation, I look forward to personally welcoming you into our community.

B'Shalom,

Karen Hyman
President

Why Join Us?

Fair Share Pledge Commitments

“To be part of a community, to shape it, and to strengthen it is the most urgent, the most vital obligation facing the Jewish individual.” - Elie Wiesel

Congregation Beth HaTephila depends on the financial support of each member to provide us with the opportunities for Jewish expression that can only occur within Temple walls. As a community it is incumbent on everyone to contribute to the “whole.”

We want every member of our Sacred Community to be comfortable and give, based on your own individual circumstances. It is in this spirit that we have a Fair Share Pledge system, in which each of us contributes to the health and well-being of our Congregation to the very best of our ability. It has been determined that in order to maintain our Temple and provide the experiences of Jewish life offered at CBHT it costs an average of $1860 per family. Fair Share pledges support operations only. They do not provide adequate support for maintenance of essential functions such as major facilities repairs, replacement of HVAC, or retirement of debt taken on to support our major improvements. Since we understand that we all have a different capacity of providing financial support to our Congregation, as a guideline we suggest a minimum of 2% of your household income. Our Fair Share Pledge system rests on the assumption that your pledge is based on self-reflection and a personal assessment of your ability to contribute to CBHT. It is not a comparison between congregants. Please know that your pledge is confidential and will not be shared in any way with others. CBHT welcomes your membership and no one will be turned away due to financial circumstances.

As noted above, CBHT has just completed a major renovation project that includes a new social hall, new classrooms and administrative offices, and improvements to the sanctuary. This is a four million dollar project and a majority of these funds have been pledged by congregants. We will be asking all congregants to pledge what they can toward this most important investment in the future of Jewish Asheville. Please keep this in mind as you plan your annual contributions.

If you have any questions about our Fair Share Pledge System or your own pledge commitment, please contact me at any time.

Fair Share Pledge FAQs

What is Fair Share?

Fair Share is a pledge level you set yourself, in consideration of your capacity to support the Temple, the Temple's actual expenses, and the minimum level of 2% of your annual household income.

Why should I contribute more than $1860?

By giving more, you fulfill the spirit of tzedakah, permit those less fortunate to enjoy the benefits of Temple membership, and give the Temple a margin for growth.

Is my Fair Share to Beth HaTephila tax deductible?

Yes! It counts, along with all your other contributions, as tax deductible, which means the actual cost to you may be less, depending on your tax bracket.

Besides paying my Fair Share or more, how else can I help the Temple financially?

- Make your payments on time: Pay annually, semi-annually, quarterly, or monthly and/or sign up for automatic bank draft or credit card payments. All these eliminate the need to send follow-up invoices and statements, reduce the number of checks received, and save the Temple considerable administrative time and expenses.
- Purchase grocery store Gift Cards: Buy a card at face value and the Congregation receives a percentage of the value of the card. They are available in multiple denominations from Ingles, EarthFare, and Fresh Market. Gift Cards can be mailed to you or purchased in the Temple office and on Sundays at Religious School.
- If a credit card is used, please add 3% to cover the Temple's costs.

What is the Building Maintenance Fund?

Our buildings have been enhanced over the years by Building Maintenance pledges. We ask that new members do their share and pledge a minimum of $1,200 in up to five installments (for example, $240 per annum over a five-year period).

In addition to the Building Maintenance Fund we also have a Capital Campaign Fund, L'Dor V'Dor. We are making a long-term commitment to our beautiful new building and seek your assistance. If you would like to make a pledge to this fund, please contact Larry Weiss at ljayweiss@yahoo.com or 828.251.1628.
